

* LANA ZILBERMAN SOLOWAY
Tour Educator

Date of Birth
29/01/1982

Lana was born in the Former Soviet Union and made Aliyah with her family in 1990. After completing high school, she served in the IDF in an Intelligence Unit. Lana studied East Asian culture at Hebrew University, piano performance and vocal coaching at the Jerusalem Music Academy.

Lana began her career as a tour educator in 2008 and has since guided Birthright, Federations, congregational trips, families and interfaith groups. Her fields of expertise include Jewish studies, Zionism and the Holocaust. Lana incorporates a lot of music, poetry, text and personal stories whilst guiding.

In addition to guiding in Israel, Lana has toured Germany playing music composed during the Holocaust, led teens through Jewish Eastern Europe and participated in Peace – Making Simulations in the United States. All of these experiences have focused on creating individual connections to the land of Israel and building bridges between the Jewish people.

For Lana, being a Tour Educator is a dream come true. Every time that she is with a group she feels as though she is living a dream!
